My user account has a lot of scripts in the Unity search. Is there a way to make scripts so that they don't appear in the default list of recently used items? A: Create new empty project, and open the Unity dash: You will see that Unity-Lenses / Files / Documents / etc are the ones listed under Recent Items They are listed below the File Type icons If you want to remove some files from the list, then see this answer If you want to remove the filenames from the top of the list that are under some Categories such as Documents, Video, Music, Images then you can use the search box located on the top of the Lenses/Files to search for what you want and delete those entries from the list. To do so, just keep the cursor on each search result (circle with a white line around it) and press Alt+
