For a good review of applications, see the Design-Expert review in Anderson, Engineering Design, January 2, 2011. Although most of the book is fairly scientific, Anderson has a section on improving your students' lives—and thinking of ways to do so. One advantage of this software program is the ability to analyze the effects of design factors and their interactions. Voted Best Camping Gear in Florida Gear list for camping, fishing and RV RapidRepair Does your hiking or camping gear need a repair? Do you carry emergency tools to repair the gear? If you hike, backpack, or camp a lot, it's unlikely that your gear has needed a repair since the last trip. BUT, maybe you're tired of carrying around a hundred pounds of gear or buying emergency repair kits that include god-knows-what to patch your tent or backpacking gear. So, we dug up this list of the best camping gear for your next camping or hiking trip. Best Camping Gear For Hiking, Backpacking, or Car Camping First, don't forget that camp stoves and lanterns are essential gear for overnight camping or hiking in the wilderness. If you're planning to do a hike up Mount McKinley or climb the Grand Canyon, consider this list of gear items. One of the things you may be carrying on a hike is a coffee maker. Many people love to brew up a cup of coffee and dunk in some warm flapjacks to start their day right. What do you usually do if your propane stove doesn't light? How can you avoid losing a day in the woods when your coffee pot gurgles and sputters on your stove? How can you change a tire without having the right tools? This list of outdoor camping gear items is designed to help you prepare and carry a minimum of emergency gear. But if your camping gear is in the best shape, then you should be able to find every one of these items in one of the stores or online that sell camping and backpacking gear. Best Tent Do you remember your first outdoor camping experience? Did you have a top-of-the-line tent? The materials used in your backpacking or camping tent are essential gear items that can make a significant difference in your tent's performance.
