Learn more about the serial number, activation key, and installing MATLAB. . I'm downloading MATLAB 2014a (for Linux 64-bit) from the University of Alberta webshop. I receive a MATLAB 2014a activation code in PDF format, but I can't copy and paste it into the input field in MATLAB. What can I do to copy from this document? I am using Ubuntu 14.04 I'm not sure what you're looking for, but I have a MATLAB activation code to use. I am also using the 64 bit version and the activation code was simply copied into the MATLAB window. I think you only have the 32-bit version, in which case you can just paste the activation code into MATLAB without copying it.
