In this way, using the trial by jury technique to resolve the litigation and provide a means for presenting all of the facts and mitigating circumstances surrounding a death penalty determination, may provide a closer approximation of truth and reliability in the determination of punishment than might be reached otherwise. For the reasons stated, I respectfully dissent. NOTES [1] Rule 609(a)(1)(E) states: "For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness, any evidence of the conviction of a crime by the witness shall be admitted if: (E) the crime was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of 1 year under the law under which the witness was convicted, or the crime involved dishonesty or false statement regardless of punishment." [2] Rule 609(a)(1)(C) states: "For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness, any criminal conviction of the witness shall be admitted if it involved dishonesty or false statement, regardless of the punishment." [3] The post-conviction order relied on § 27-403
